Charlton High School

Dedication 59

With this dedication--Mrs. Emma G. Hammond--our efficient and devoted advisor for the past four years, we, the class of 1959, pay high tribute to you as one of Charlton's most outstanding teachers for the past thirty-six years. Being a punctilious perfectionist, who never procrastinates, your name will always be synonymous with Charlton High School proms, rings, and financial records. It can truly be said of you that your job is your whole life--a life which has molded many Charlton pupils into good citizens.

He has been in Glee Club 4, Chefs' Club 2, Athletic Club 2, Chefs' Club Secretary 1, and has participated in the All Star Assembly. "Johnny" has been accepted at Stockbridge School of Agriculture at Amherst.

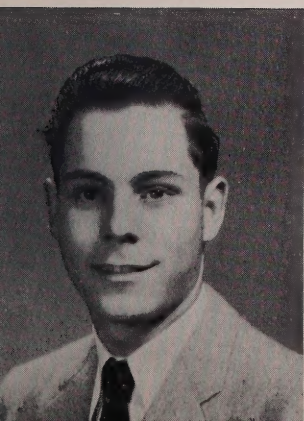

CAROLYN JENKINS

Carolyn, voted our most outstanding athlete and most representative of C.H.S., surely justifies our vote. She was in Glee Club 2, Voice Class 4, Dramatic Club 3, Basketball 3, Softball 4, Student Council 1, Student Exchange 1, Highlights Staff 1, and Honor Roll. Carolyn did a smooth job in playing the part of Susan in the Dramatic Club Play, A Man Called Peter. She plans to attend college.

SYLVIA JOHN

If you are looking for a vivacious, loquacious, attractive girl, you have found her in our Sylvia. She participated in Voice Class 3, Glee Club 2, Secretary of Class 1, Pep Squad 1, Dramatic Club 3, and Athletic Club 1. Sylvia plans to attend a business school after graduation.

JOHN KINGSTON

"Jack," who is neat, industrious, dependable, and cooperative surely lives up to his name. He was in Dramatic Club 2, and Fine Arts Club 2. He did a wonderful job as chairman of the paper drive, and he certainly worked hard on the Card Committee. "Jack," who was voted most likely to marry, plans to work after graduation.

NANCY LANGLOIS

Nancy, voted the most agreeable member of our class, has a pleasing personality. She has been a member of the Dramatic Club 1, Photo Club 1, Fine Arts Club 2, and Voice Class 1. Nancy's plans are to do secretarial work.

"Don" won the first prize in the District Public Speaking Contest, and later placed in the State Contest. "Don's" plans for the future are uncertain.

Class History

Part I

High School! It had finally arrived. As we looked into the corridors of Charlton High School in Sept. 1955, we found fifty-seventimid Freshmen, all excited, as this was the beginning of their long journey.

The class was separated into two home rooms under the supervision of Mrs. Emma Hammond and Mr. David Perry. Each room selected its own officers, who were as follows: presidents-Priscilla Lavigne and Donald Norcross; vice-presidents-Mary Cook, and Nancy Riopel; secretaries-Betty Boudreau and Sylvia John; treasurers-Trudy McGlinchey and Joseph Oliver.

We decided at once that we should pick a motto to aim at during our four years of high school. "Today Decides Tomorrow" was the one we chose, and I am sure every member of the class has found it to be a very worthwhile motto to aim at.

At the end of our Freshman year our honor roll students were these; highest honors-Priscilla Lavigne, Joe Oliver, Nancy Riopel and John Tite; honors-Mary Carleton, Cecelia Cierpich, Suzanne Davidson, Donna Fitts, Nancy Germain, Cynthia Heck, William Hultgren, Claudia Mitchell, and Donald Norcross.

Our activities for the year were the Freshman Hop, and our participation in the Magazine drive.

We were sorry to see the following pupils leave our class: Natalie Arnold, Pat Browning, Arlene Casey, Barry Casey, Raymond Leduc, Arthur Mobley, Dorothy

by Betty Boudreau

Peterson, Roger Snow, and Daryle Tower.

Our Freshman year quickly rolled by, and we left on our summer vacation with bright hopes for the future.

We began our Sophomore year with forty-nine pupils, still divided into two rooms, and under the supervision of Mrs. Emma Hammond and Mr. David Perry.

The class officers for the year were as follows: presidents-Trudy McGlinchey and Donald Norcross; vice-presidents-Mary Cook and John Tite; secretaries-Betty Boudreau and Nancy Germain; and treasurers-Priscilla Lavigne and Nancy Riopel.

As the year continued, we welcomed one new pupil namely, Elizabeth Nichols, but we also regretfully lost, Patricia Fredericks, David Schwartz, Bernice Stevens, and Danny Thibaudeau.

Our honor roll students for the year were these: highest honors-John Tite; honors-Lillian Baron, Mary Carleton, Cecelia Cierpich, Mary Jane Cummings, Nancy Germain, William Hultgren, Carolyn Jenkins, Priscilla Lavigne, and Joe Oliver.

Our class activities were again limited to the Sophomore Hop and the Magazine drive.

In June we eagerly awaited the beginning of our Junior year, which promised fund raising projects, and our much anticipated rings and Junior prom.

Part II

by Nancy Germain

We began our Junior year in September of 1957: Our class consisted of forty-eight members, under the direction of Mrs. Emma Hammond. We later regretted the loss of Dolores Burlingame.

The officers elected for this year were as follows: president-Richard Adams; vice-president-Priscilla Lavigne; secretary-Lillian Baron; and treasurer-Nancy Riopel.

To begin our fund raising activities for our Senior class trip to Washington and New York, we held the first dance of the year, our Junior Hop, on September 27. We had a large attendance and beautiful autumn decorations.

To increase the amount of money in our treasury, we, Juniors, sold chocolates during the month of October, and we were also busy with a successful paper drive.

The honor roll students at the end of the Junior year were as follows: Cecelia Cierpich, Nancy Germain, William Hultgren, Priscilla Lavigne, Joseph Oliver, and John Tite.

The class was very pleased with their rings which they received in October.

We took a very interesting trip to The State House in Boston with our U. S. History teacher, Miss Barbara Dunham. We also had an enjoyable and educational field trip to Concord to visit homes of American Authors with our advisor, Mrs. Emma Hammond and our English teacher, Mrs. Mabel Fiske.

We held a successful Junior Prom the first Friday in May, with Russ Cole's orchestra. Our theme was "Moonlight Fantasy," with primrose yellow and ice blue as our class colors, and Blue Daisies as our class flower.

In September of 1958, having moved into a newly and most attractively painted room which we greatly enjoyed, we began our last year at Charlton High, under the much appreciated supervision of Mrs. Emma Hammond. We numbered forty-three students, and regretted the loss of Nancy Riopel, Dolores Favreau, Joyce White, Diane Morang, and Roger Anderson.

The leaders elected for our Senior year were these: president-Richard Adams; vice-president-Cecelia Cierpich; secretary-Lillian Baron; and treasurer-Nancy Germain.

Honor roll students for the first ranking period included: highest honors-Cecelia Cierpich, Priscilla Lavigne, Claudia Mitchell; honor roll-Lillian Baron, Elizabeth Boudreau, Mary Carleton, Arlene Casey, Mary Jane Cummings, Gail Forkey, Nancy Germain, William Hultgren, Carolyn Jenkins, Joseph Oliver, John Tite, and Cecily Toboyko.

Our first activity to raise money for our Senior Trip was our Senior Hop, which was held on September 26, under the supervision of Mrs. Emma Hammond. Following this was our very successful auction which was under the direction of Mr. Robert Ewing.

During the month of September and October, we had a Christmas Card sale in which all of the class participated. This drive, supervised by Mrs. Emma Hammond, netted the class over $1000.00 profit towards our trip.

On January 16, we sponsored a Basketball Game and Sock Hop in the new gymnasium, with Mrs. Emma Hammond in charge.

On Friday, February 20, we began our joyful trip to Washington. We wish to thank our Chaperones for the grand job they did. We all had a wonderful time on this trip.

Next we held our Senior play, The Egg and I, a two-act comedy, which was coached by Mrs. Mabel Fiske, assisted by Mr. Donald Sullivan.

We, the Seniors of 1959, would like to thank everyone who has participated in helping us through our four wonderful years at C. H. S.

Class Prophecy

by Cecily Toboyko

It is twenty years after our C.H.S. graduation and the opening night of our big show entitled Twenty Years After. Will the show ever be over? The unbearable excitement is felt by the whole cast including John Tite, now the "Baby-Faced" actor of Broadway, the darling of the great white way. Others back stage are Cecelia Cierpich, who is the new fashion designer of the show; John Hunt, now a famous singer, (he got his start (remember) singing in talent shows at old C.H.S.); and Catherine Benoit, another star, who is about to give her first command performance since her winning of the Oscar for her remarkable performance as Scarlett O'Hara in "Gone With the Wind." Playing opposite her in this picture was another actor from C.H.S., a Clark Gable in his own right, our own Lester Fitts, better known to his fans as the ever popular "Pat" Presley.

Wayne Lund and "Wes" Stevens are just settling themselves in the front row, which, by the way, is reserved for celebrities. They are now famous explorers and have just returned from an expedition to the South Pole, where they studied the effects of tobacco on penguins. The startling discovery that penguins have been smoking for years has shocked the world. Sitting next to them, having just flown in from Paris, is that famous hair stylist, Cynthia Heck, and her husband, the steel magnate, Rich Adams. Coming in right behind "Wes" and Wayne is one of our most distinguished guests, Don Williams, who is now the Secretary of U. S. Agriculture.

Back stage everything is bustling. John Tite yells for make-up, and who should come running but our own Nancy Langlois. Nancy is now manager of three major Hollywood studios. The show is ready to go on. The director, none other than Nancy Germain, shouts for the curtain. The curtain rises on a plain set, almost completely bare except for a table and a few chairs. Toward one end we see a door open slowly, and a ghastly figure emerge. Typifying Father Time, this figure steps from the door followed by another character who is dressed in a plain robe and turban. As they advance down stage, we are able to recognize two former devils, "Doug" Russell and "Kathy" Trifone. Kathy's costume is a superb example of why Marilyn McKissick is one of the top costume artists. Gail Forkey, who is now managing--with her partner, Sue Davidson,--a Slender-Ella Shop, is also seen in the show in the part of Willo-Wisp, a tall willowy girl of sixteen. The show goes on, with an all star cast including Tiny Tim, who is really our own Joe Oliver and his wife Trudy. They certainly make a fine looking couple. The actors just mentioned, with Cecily Toboyko, are the leading characters in the show.

After the show, many of our former classmates come back stage to congratulate us. Looking very happy, Mary Cook, now Mrs. Pete Vigeant, with her eight boys, is the first to come back to see us. Then, our happily married Betty Boudreau McKinstry appears with her husband. Betty was telling me that she heard from Lillian Baron and Pat Sprott, who are now co-owners of a Teddy-Bear Farm. They are doing very well and have just signed a contract for the sale of one hundred bears to the Benson Animal Farm, which is managed by Don Norcross and his wife, the former Dot Bellerive.

The lawyer who transacted this important deal was none other than Donna Fitts, a well-known female attorney, who yesterday had the honor of being appointed as the first woman Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

To get back to the theatre, we are all surprised to see Jack Kingston and his wife Arlene. Jack is now a famous architect and has just finished the most important job of his career, the remodeling of Mrs. Hammond's walk in safe. We are all surprised to see them because baby-sitters are hard to find now a days, and I'm sure they would not leave their nine children alone. Jack tells us that he solved his problem by calling on the Flower King, Bill Hultgren, who operates a baby-sitting agency as an added attraction. Bill receives much help in his endeavors from his partner in business, "Pat" Beckwith. "Pat" is now most happily married to her Junior. Arlene told me that the Professor Piehl, whom I have heard so much about, is our own David. He is now teaching Problems of Democracy at C.H.S. in place of our beloved Mr. Ewing. Another classmate who has returned to C.H.S. to teach is Eddy Leboeuf, now teaching U.S. History, and--believe it or not,--loving every minute of it. Some of the old gang have gone into business for themselves.

Carolyn Jenkins and Richard Roussel have pooled their interests and are now operating their own I.B.M., Typewriter, and Cash Register Enterprise. Mary Carleton owns her own accordion factory and is doing quite well for herself.

After most of the crowd had left, we went to the Latin Quarter for dinner. Dining with us was my partner in the show Claudia Mitchell, better known as Mrs. Rockefeller, Jr. She met her husband while she was working as his private secretary.

At the Latin Quarter, we bumped into two other friends, Mary Jane Gillespie and Sylvia John. Sylvia surprised us all when she excused herself from the table and disappeared. Mary Jane was telling us how she was now teaching physical education and coaching a group of girls made up of Nancy's, Arlene's, and her own daughters. As we turned to watch the floor show, we were really shocked to see Sylvia come out with another girl who looked vaguely familiar. After the routine was over, which consisted of a song and dance by Sylvia and her partner, we were all guessing as to who the mystery partner could be. You can imagine our surprise to see our own Priscilla Lavigne emerge from the Hawaiian costume. "Pris" told us that she had tried to keep away from the stage, because she thought that it might affect her marriage; but when she saw how well Sylvia and her husband got along, she decided to try it. It certainly worked well, for she's celebrating her ninth wedding anniversary tomorrow. We all congratulated her. After a very enjoyable evening, we all went home to read the reviews of the show. One of the most enthusiastic ones came from Paul Blauvelt, who has taken over the Mike Wallace show. Since all my fellow classmates has made out well, I went home to my own thirteen room mansion and eight children. I went to bed and had a wonderful dream about the dreams of all my classmates that had come true because of our wonderful democracy that was made from someone else's dream, a democracy that can help to make everyone's dreams come true.

Class Song

TUNE: I'll Remember Tonight
Words: Pat Sprott and Richard Adams

Our school years have gone by
With memories forever lasting.
Our graduation day is here,
Too soon the time is drawing near to part.

Our advisor's the best.
To her we leave a grateful, thank you,
For helping us along our way
To reach, at last, our graduation day.

It seems like only a moment ago
We were no more than Freshmen.
We hope that your years will bring you
Much joy and success.

Now the Juniors are tops.
We leave the future up to them now.
They will keep the school's spirit
When they carry the key as Seniors.

COMMENCEMENT

Reflect, if you will, on the word Commencement. Not only does it mean a celebration of a successful four years, but also a "beginning of graduation life." Actually, at your High School Commencement you are starting to assume life's major responsibilities. The diploma you receive is not only a reward, but a passport to this future responsibility. American Optical Company congratulates you on your "Commencement." Our best wishes go with you as you assume new duties and obligations that will further mold into a successful American Citizen.
